This May be Plea Introduced by Attorneys Representing I. S. McCue.

NEW EVIDENCE PROCURED

Much Speculation as to What Lines the Defense Will , be Made.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., Oct. 1.—
There is naturally much speculation indulged in as to what line of defense will be adopted by the counsel for exMayor J. Samuel McCue, charged with the murder of his wife, when the case comes to trial at the next term of the Corneration Court.

comes to trial at the next combestion comporation Court.

There is one defense only which is positively known to be eliminated. "It will certainly not be self-defense," said one of the counsel for the prisoner, in reply to a request for some utterance upon the subject, but that was as far as he would go.

"Is it true that the lawyers for the defense have been to the Western State Hospital to obtain evidence upon which to base a plea of insanity?" persisted the reporter.

MAY PLEAD INSANITY.

"I believe there was a notice in the Staunton Dispatch-News to the effect that two of Mr. McCue's attorneys were in Staunton last week," replied the lawyer, and from his tone, manner and countenance no one but a mind reader could have told what part the visit to Staunton would play in the murder trial destined to prove the most remarkable and sensational ever held in Virginia.

It is believed by some that the defense will make the most of the horrors of the murder and the inconsistency of a man of Mr. McCue's prominence committing such a diabolical crime. It will be helfas proper; ground for reasonable doubt that any husband, holding a high position in the community, who was known to have provided every comfort for his wife, as did Mr. McCue, could have been guilty of cholting, beating and finally shooting his wife. As confirming this doubt, there will be presented further all the evidence obtainable to show that a burglar uight have committed the crime; the statement of the negro in the house, who said in heard Mrs. McCue say; "Sam, he is killing me!" and the evidence of Mr. E. O. McCue and others in regard to the man who was seen running down Park Street, in the direction of the McCue residence. Of course the danger of convicting a man on circumstantial evidence will be cited in which there was as strong evidence of guilt as that which points to Mr. McCue's and others in regard to the man who was seen running down Park Street, in the direction of the McCue residence. Of course, meaning a possible solution of the murder, o

No late news is obtainable of the wide Japanese turning movement east, which is regarded as the chief feature of the Japanese operations. Should Oyama be compelled to abandon the idea of an advance, it is stated in a Mukden dispatch that it is possible, with fresh troops constantly arriving, that General Kuropatkin may attempt some offensive operations.

Important Developments.

October 1-5:02 P. M.—Important developments on the eastern flank of the Manchurian army are admitted by the War Office to be proceeding. The details, however, are withheld for strategic reasons, the authorities departing from silence only to the extent of saying that the Bussian cavalry is executing im-silence only to the extent of saying that the Russian cavalry is executing important movements, leaving it to be surmised that it is trying to cut the Japanese line of communications and thus defeat the flank advance.

An absolute denial is given to the Shanghai telegram reporting that a general engagement at Mukden has been won by the Japanese.

The War Office even declares that nothing is known of serious fighting there. It is pointed out that the reports of the Russian retirement from Mukden are disproved by yesterday's telethat General Kuropatkin's outposts are as far south as Yental.

The news from the front is extremely meagre and many confusing statements are made.

It seems questionable whether Field Marshal Oyama is ready to assume the offensive.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RALEIGH, N. C., October 1.-In Wake Superior Court this morning a nolle rosequi was entered by order of Judge Ferguson in the famous criminal proceeding against Captain V. M. McBee and K. S. Finch, charging them with conspiracy against the State in their litigation for the appointment of a receiver for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

lina Railroad.

The case was some days age continued for the term on account of the continued lilness of Captain W. H. Day, of counsel for the defendants, but to-day Prank I. Osborn, also of counsel for the defendants, moved for the noile prosequi. So this is the order the court had entered on the record. "By request of the Governor of the State and consent of the defendants, the solicitor says he will not further prosecute this case, and therefore it is ordered that a noile prosequi be entered herein."

This brings to a final close one of the most sensational litigations that have figured in the State or Federal courts of North Carolina in years.

river to bring up supplies, and that their operations are being opposed, they not having sheated in approach, they not having sheated in approach, they not having sheated in approach to the Hun River. The forthcoming changes in the naval commands, announced by the Associated Press, have become the subject of widespread discussion. The necessity for the changes is generally admitted, but whether Emperor Nicholas will give immediate effect to the reorganization is uncertain. Meanwhile Vice-Admiral Aveilan requests that a formal denial of the news of his retirement from the ministry of marine be made public. The numerous friends and supporters of General Kuropatkin declare that events justify their prediction that he, after all will be appointed chief in command of the armies in the Far East, and that the Emperor has reconsidered his intention of sending out Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholalevitch as commander-in-chief. According to their version, the first army will be placed under command of General Lubovitski, now commanding the ninch army corps at Kleff, and the third army under Lieutenant-General Linevitch. Quarters are being prepared at the Winter Palace for Viceroy aloxieft, upon whom the Emperor intends to bestow a mark of signal honor to prove that his return in no wise is in the nature of a

"A gentleman who $8 well known in this country, and is one of the officers and owners of a great-railroad system, which runs partially in the United States and partially in Canada, who will back up and prove his statement, which I am now to repeat, if it be challenged, informs me that last year his railroad (crossing and recrossing the national boundary line), bought quantities of rails from the American producers. For such of them as were delivered at Canadian stations, to be laid on Canadian soils, it paid $21 per ton. For such portion, as were delivered at American points, to be laid on American soil, it paid $25 per ton. These were the same rails, turned out of the same extablishment, on the same day, and shipped from the mill in cars of the same make. I am informed also, though not by one of the officials of the road, that the New York Central, which extends up into Canada, has had the same experience. No wonder the On a basis of $21 as a fair price which extends up into Canada, has had the same experience. No wonder the Canadian Pacific, having this advantage of 23 1-3 per cent. "In summary resume, fellow citizens, the trusts bind in their grasp, the producer of the raw material, bind also the laboring man, and in protected countries (though they cannot do so elsewhere), rob the consumer of the finished products by charging extortionate prices. How can there, then, be any 'good trusts?' Good monarchs there are and have been, but there, then, be any good trusts: Good monarchies never. One-man power is essentially unjust and iniquitous, whether abused or not. Generous and good trust magnates there are and have been, but a good trust, never. Such unlimited and abusable power in the hands of a creature of the law essentially antagonizes free institutions and industrial welfare. Shame, shame, on the Republican party! Ruling, a land which is the home of varied industries and of intelligent, patient, industrious workingmen, it has made of that land the chief breeding place of trusts, to bind fast the toller at one end of the industrial line, and to rob the commer at the other. Shame, that its ideal in a free republic of free men should not be and Fengtiapu. On September 20th a detachment of Russian cavalry dreve the Japanese from the village of Changtan and burned seventeen junks which were transporting ammunition on the Hun River. The cavalry retired upon the approach of Japanese reinforcements.

General Sakharoff reports that the Japanese are still pouring across the Taitse River at Benshu, thirty miles northeast of Liao Yang. He adds that numbers of Chinese bandits are with the Japanese on the Liao side of the railroad.

Popular Gusiness House Passes Twentyfifth Anniversary.

The first day of October, just passed, marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the existence of the music house of Walter D. Moses and Company. Through a quarter of a century has this institution heen a part of the city of Richmond, identified in every way with the city's prosperity. During all of these years this house has been adding to its reputation for fair and honest dealings. It is more firmly established now than ever before in the hearts of the people of the community, for during the years that have passed the public have learned that this house gives full value to its pairons, and that its statements as to the value and quality of its goods can be relied upon with absolute certainty, Walter D. Moses and Company carry now a full and magnificent line of Planes, Organs and Musical Instruments generally, and the appearance of the institution is that of robust manhood-twenty-five years old and full of life and vigor. A heuse that is fully in its prime. During the quarter of a century that this house has been a recognized factor in the busless life, of Richmond, many music houses have come and many have gone, but this institution has continued in the even tenor of its way, gathering strength, prestize and friends and patrons, until it occupies a position that might well exercise the ennity of many smaller concerns.

Connected with the management and conduct of the concern now, besides the sole owner of the firm, is his venerable
